ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court sua sponte to continue the case.

On December 18, 2007, the Defendant was indicted in a three-count bill of indictment and charged with three counts of bank robbery, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a). An arrest warrant was issued. The Defendant's first appearance was on January 23, 2008 at which time counsel was appointed. His case was placed on the February 11, 2008 calendar for trial.

"Unless the defendant consents in writing to the contrary, the trial shall not commence less than thirty days from the date on which the defendant first appears through counsel or expressly waives counsel and elects to proceed pro se." 18 U.S.C. §3161(c)(2). The Defendant here has not so consented and thus, his trial may not start less than thirty days from his appearance with counsel.

In addition, the Court finds that counsel would not have an adequate opportunity to prepare for trial, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. The Court therefore finds that a failure to grant the continuance "would unreasonably deny the defendant . . . the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence." 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(8)(B)(iv).

For the reasons stated herein, the ends of justice served by the granting of the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(8)(A).

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the above-captioned case is CONTINUED from the February 11, 2008 term in the Charlotte Division.

Signed: January 23, 2008

Martin Reidinger
United States District Judge
